5. [REDACTED] is hereby recommended for the Certificate of Distinction in recognition of outstanding service to the Intelligence Community and the United States during the period from 26 November 1979 to 31 March 1982. As the DoD member of the small interagency National Multidisciplinary Counterintelligence (MDCI) Assessment Center, [REDACTED] made a major contribution to the second and third NSC-required national assessments of the total hostile intelligence services' threat to the United States and of U.S. countermeasures thereto. He also pioneered in establishing and managing the NSC-required National Multidisciplinary Counterintelligence Production Register--a valuable bibliographic reference of all analyses of strategic foreign intelligence activities of capabilities which represent a threat to the United States. The Register contains abstracts of documents arranged by subject country and includes all classification levels or collection disciplines.
